

Great news! The NYCDOE Division of Contracts and Purchasing (DCP) and the Office of Instructional Technology (OIT) announce steep discounts off list price on award winning instructional software that will be available for purchase September 2, 2008.

NYCDOE Software Exposition

Save the Date

Technical Learning Solutions Piece by Piece: Putting It All Together

Principals, Teachers, Coaches are invited to a Software Exposition for software facts, demos, best practices, speakers, prizes/raffles, and more!

When: Half day sessions offered
Monday, October 6th & Tuesday, October 7th
8:30 AM–12:00 PM or
1:30 PM–5:00 PM

Where: Brooklyn Museum of Art

How: <http://www.learningtimes.net/nycdoeshowcase/register>

Additional Information to Follow

NYCDOE Software Titles Include:

- Orchard by Siboney
- Destination Math & Reading by Houghton Mifflin
- Rosetta Stone
- Waterford Early Learning by Pearson
- Gizmos by ExploreLearning
- Raz-Kids by Learning A-Z
- Encyclopedia Britannica
- Earobics by Houghton Mifflin
- Dimension M by Tabula Digita
- Atomic Learning
- Virtual Science Lab by Pearson

Key Benefits:

- Nationally Recognized Award Winning K-12 Titles
- Extensive Training & Professional Development Provided by NYCDOE's Office of Instructional Technology
- Customized Software & Professional Development Packages
- NYSSL Dollar Eligible
- Dedicated Help Desk and Support for Selected Titles
- And did we mention Steep Discounts?

Coming Soon:

The discounted software will be available for purchase on the FAMIS portal in e-Catalog

As seen in PW.

If you have any additional questions please email us at Software@schools.nyc.gov